

CAT NO : CRIT032
ARTIST: SABRE & VICIOUS CIRCLE
SIDE A: ENDLESS
SIDE B: COLUMBO
RELEASE DATE : APRIL 2008

Over at Critical towers we love a good collaboration and this one is no exception.

Two of the hottest new skool producers on the scene have combined their respective forces for a 12 that we over here cant get enough of.

Endless harks back to the halcyon days of Ram and Virus, with tech infused funk and staggering beats throwing you all over the floor. Columbo is a deeper more brooding affair, using subtle sounds and driving bass to move you, sublime stuff.
